

Little Badman and the Invasion of the Killer Aunties

By Humza Arshad and
Henry White

Read the extract here:

<https://www.penguin.co.uk/articles/children/2019/jan/little-badman-by-humza-arshad-henry-white-extract.html>

Vocabulary Check

- flailing – to wave or swing something wildly
- arrogant - to think you are more important or more able than others

Quick Start

1. What is the Little Badman's real name?
2. Who was Little Badman's best friend?
3. What animal was Mustafa the pet?
4. What happened to Wendy Wang's glasses?
5. What was Miss Crumble 'super allergic' to?

Individual Thinking

The author writes with a humorous tone throughout the story. Find and copy a phrase or sentence in this extract that is comical and explain why it is funny.

Individual Thinking

Little Badman often exaggerates which adds to the humour of the book.

1. If you don't know already, find out what 'exaggeration' is by using a dictionary or the internet.
2. Find an example of exaggeration in the text.

Solo Work

'But nothing, and I mean nothing, shaped me as much as my final year at primary school. I don't know if you've ever seen any war movies, about Vietnam or Iraq or the Galactic Empire, but none of that compares to what I went through in my final year at school. To call myself the greatest hero the world has ever known would be arrogant, so I won't do that. I'll leave you all to form your own opinion once you get to the end of my tale.'

Use what you know from the story so far to predict what happens to Little Badman in his final year of school. Write your prediction in full sentences.