

LO: to understand how to measure weight.

Can you put the letter (H) for heavier and (L) for lighter against each of the scales to show whether the animals are lighter or heavier. You are more than welcome to have a discussion about this as opposed to printing it off.

Can you explain why the animals are heavier and lighter on each set of scales?

