What is the Saffron Centre for Young Musicians?

It is a partnership between the Guildhall School of Music and Drama, Saffron Hall, Essex Music Education Hub and Saffron Walden County High School. It provides outstanding opportunities for students with a special interest in music between the ages of 4 and 18, from beginner to diploma standard.

Young musicians work together in a nurturing environment where their musical potential is developed to the highest level.

What happens each week?

A full morning of music making; from ensembles and choirs to musicianship and individual lessons, where available.

All our tutors are professional musicians appointed by the Guildhall and SCYM.

What is the relationship with the Guildhall School of Music and Drama?

SCYM is modelled on the highly successful Centre for Young Musicians in London. It is the third Saturday Music School in the country to follow the London model and is also a division of the Guildhall. SCYM provides a comprehensive and high quality musical pathway from beginner to college entrance under one roof with the support of a leading UK conservatoire. Guildhall School students work and perform with SCYM students on a regular basis.

When does it take place?

There are 30 Saturday mornings in each academic year in three 10 week terms. SCYM is open from 8.30am until 3.30 pm.

Where does it take place?

SCYM meets at Saffron Walden County High School, Audley End Road, Saffron Walden CB11 4UH.

How much does it cost per week?

Cost for core curriculum is £22 per week (9.30 to 12.45). Individual tuition is available at an additional £16 per week (optional). Bursaries are available.
