

Charter for pupils at Katherine Semar Schools

While a student at Katherine Semar, your child will have the opportunity to...

Meet and work with an author	Perform in shows in front of an audience
Visit an aquarium	Visit museums
Complete Bikeability	Visit a range of religious buildings
Be a mystery reader	Interview the Big Bad Wolf
Go on an Easter egg hunt	Visit an art gallery
Meet Father Christmas in his grotto	Become a Roman, Tudor, Ancient Greek, a WW2 evacuee and a Victorian for the day
Toast marshmallows on an open fire	Take part in school elections to become a house captain
Make and use a rope swing in our forest	Visit a Roman temple
Make croissants in a bakery in France	Explore the solar system in a planetarium
Have the opportunity to perform in an orchestra	Perform at the Gymnastics and dance festivals at Saffron Hall
Connect with the elderly at Stanley Wilson Lodge	Ride a wooden cart, drawn by a cow
Sing in a concert at the O2 arena	Film a documentary about World War 2
Spend some nights away from home	Explore the galaxy
Stroke an owl	Grow the tallest sunflower
Build a den with their friends	Go to a grand ball
Eat ice cream on the beach	Go on a nature walk at night
Abseil and rock climb	Have access to the latest technology
Shoot an arrow	Solve a crime
Watch a live theatre performance	Learn to play a musical instrument
Hatch some chicks from eggs	Have a teddy bears' picnic
Play in woodland and play on the mudslide	Learn a new language
Dance around the Maypole	Go on a treasure hunt
Feed new-born lambs on a farm	Debate and question topical issues
Row a paddleboard	Play sports against other schools
Build a raft on a lake	Discover what lives in a pond
Go caving	Take part in quizzes in school or against other schools
Take the high ropes challenge	Explore the wonders of a rockpool
Perform in school plays	Nurture a butterfly
Explore a castle	Become a great swimmer
Feed animals at the zoo	Explore the school on bikes