

Are you looking to work in a caring school with delightful children and a supportive, friendly staff team?

Reading champion (point 5-7 £23,500-£24,294)

Start date: September 2024 | Monday to Friday, 8.40am – 3.00pm (term-time only).

This is an extremely rare opportunity which may suit a qualified teacher who loves to make a difference but does not want to commit to whole class teaching. This is a full-time role where you would work with small groups and individual children to teach them to read. It would also suit an experienced teaching assistant.

Although the ideal times are set out above, we would be willing to have some flexibility for the ideal candidate. Please talk to us if you need some flexibility in your hours.

This role also comes with the opportunity to work in our before and after school club as well as our holiday club should you require additional hours. If you have children, they can join you in the club for free!

We are looking for someone who is:

- Committed to every child learning to read fluently and with enjoyment
- Has strong phonics subject knowledge
- Has an ability to inspire and engage children in learning to read
- Has an understanding of what makes a 'good reader'
- Has an understanding of possible barriers to reading Is passionate about books
- Has patience and empathy for those finding learning to read challenging
- Prior knowledge of RWI intervention or phonics intervention is an advantage
