CHRISTMAS AT KATHERINE SEMAR INFANT SCHOOL

Christmas is a very busy time in all schools and we are no exception. There will be a lot of fundraising and fun activities taking place over the coming weeks which makes it a very exciting time for our children but can be a bit confusing for parents, especially those of you that are experiencing it for the first time!

Our Parent forum asked us to put a timetable together, with some notes of all that will be happening at school and we hope that you find this helpful. More details of each event will be sent out in separate letters over the coming weeks and will be on our website.
